INDEPENDENCE DAY.

ITS CELEBRATION IN WASHINGTON.

Gallant Parade of the Light Infantry and the Oldest Inhabitants in the Main-Exercises at Masonic Temple—Incidents and Notes of the Day.

Yesterday was about the worst Fourth of July that ever dropped upon the city. The clouds that gathered Monday night seemed to grow revengeful and vicious as the morning advanced, and the rain began to fall heavily at first, but in increasing volume until it fell in a perfect sheet for over two mortal hours. Of course the atmospheric display caused the merriment affair to be somewhat of a disappointment. It was a bad day for picnics and excursions, a large number of which left the city in various directions. The light dresses of the female pleasure-seekers became, it might be said, and clung to lean figures and fleshy ones in a style that would have caused Oscar Wilde to besore upon creation one of his slickest smiles of approval. After the rain ceased the sun came out just long enough to see how things were progressing and then retired behind the clouds to celebrate to more. The crowds of people who usually assemble upon a holiday were represented by only a few stragglers, who all seemed to be the most miserable day they ever saw. One of the ridiculous events and at the same time one which elicited sympathy for the expectant little ones was the procession of the pupils of the Asbury Church Sunday-school, which, headed by a band, started out on Monday, but, after a few minutes, the rain came down so hard that the children were obliged to return.

All the children were dressed up in their best garments and looked as bright and happy as any party of youngsters that ever marched towards the suburbs. The procession had proceeded but a few squares, when the rain came down so hard

that the children were obliged to return.

Then the little ones stampeded for the church and proceeded to write out their names and indele-ble impressions on the walls of the church.

The children were very much amused by the proceedings, and many of them were very pleased to see the children who were so

OUR BOYS WIN

AT THE FREDERICKSBURG REGATTA.

The Junior Potomac and the Columbia Crew Successful—McKinney Comes in Ahead in the Single Scull Race—Large Number of Washingtonians Present.

Special to THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN:

FREDERICKSBURG, July 4.—The regatta of the Potomac Association, held at Fredericksburg today, was quite successful, two races being rowed in the morning and two in the afternoon.

Rowed after daylight the sky began to be clouded, and the early risers in the ancient barge predicted rain, and sure enough the rain began to fall shortly after 7 a. m. The only hotel in the place of any size—the Exchange—was crowded so that after last night not a room was to be had for the crews and scullers were quartered in the hotel except the Virginia crew, who were finding quarters at private houses. During the early morning the oarsmen either congregated at the hotel, lounge around and chat-ed, and some of them were seen to be putting some finishing touches on their boats.

At 9:30 a. m. the regatta began with the single scull race, which was won by McKinney of the Columbia crew, who came in ahead of the Junior Potomac crew, who came in second. The race was very close, and the Columbia crew were very much pleased with their success. The race was very
